LOVE AND CELEBRATION

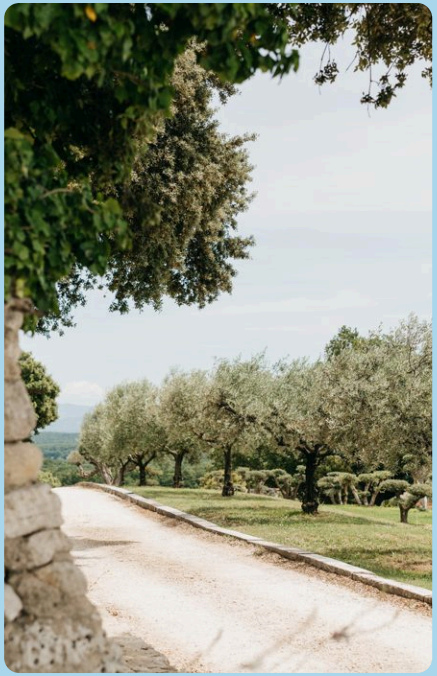
OUR WARMEST CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR WEDDING

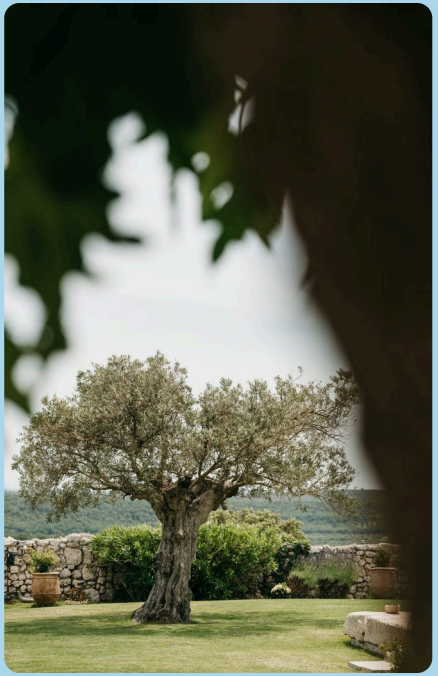
An unforgettable wedding in Provence

A setting with a natural charm all its own.

Les Terres de Sarson is a Provençal retreat full of warmth and character. The estate is a beautiful place to bring the people you love together for one of the most important days of your lives.

The gardens are filled with white roses, and paths lead past old stone walls, ponds, fountains and lavender fields. Shaded terraces, a pool, reception spaces and on-site accommodation help guests settle in and let the day unfold naturally. Make the celebration your own in a place that will stay with you.





Our story

BY LENY, YOUR WEDDING HOST

This former priory dates back to the 12th century and became a working farm over the centuries. My parents, Touraya and Denis, had both run restaurants in Lyon. They bought the property in 2006 with plans to turn it into a big home for our little family.

As renovations got under way, my mother came up with the idea for ComChezMoi, a guesthouse offering stays tailored to each visitor in a little corner of paradise in Provence.

I'm an only child, so 15 hectares felt enormous for just the three of us!

As fate would have it, my parents separated a few years into the project. Yes, I know. Sharing the story of a separation in a wedding brochure is quite bold 😅. But that's where the story takes a lovely turn. Without that separation, Domaine de Sarson might never have come to be. Sometimes the end of one love story makes room for hundreds of others to begin.

I grew up between Lyon and the estate and was lucky enough to see the renovation from start to finish, as well as the first celebrations. I got my start here as a young waiter, helping my mother when she came back to cater for events.

In 2020, in the midst of the Covid pandemic, I threw myself into the business alongside my father and my partner, Dina. We went on to get married right here at Sarson on 9 July 2025.

Those six years confirmed how much I love this place and how deeply I feel connected to its history. They also made me realise this is what I want to do. I gained experience and perspective, and above all, a clear idea of how I want to share our family estate with you on your wedding day.

Our story

In April 2026, after six wedding seasons, I launched Les Terres de Sarson. The new name reflects the character, elegance and hospitality that have always defined the estate. Dina and I have added our own warmth, simplicity and sense of fun.

The estate has been evolving since the 12th century. We're honoured to carry its story forward with the same enthusiasm and care for every detail, and to welcome you to write a chapter of your own at Les Terres de Sarson.

We spend our days thinking up new ways to make the estate work for you, giving advice and adapting to what you need. We offer wet-weather plans you'll be happy to use, outdoor spaces arranged around your plans, easy access for suppliers, freedom to organise the day your way, high-quality furniture and a team on hand throughout the celebration.

All these details have one purpose. We want you and your guests to feel completely at ease and enjoy the day with real peace of mind.

We want your wedding to be even better than you imagined. We make a point of keeping communication easy, getting back to you quickly and getting to know you along the way. From the first conversation to the last dance, we listen to what you want and offer discreet, thoughtful and practical support at every step.

We'd be delighted and honoured to help you celebrate one of the most special days of your lives.

I hope you enjoy reading this brochure. We've taken great care to make the details as clear as possible. If there's anything you'd like to ask as you picture your wedding here, the team and I will be very happy to help.
